Dear Sir:

In looking thru a
closet in my home.
I found two books of impressions of tokens of the Netherlands & Belgium.
Luxemburg and Sumatra.

As I recall it, a younger brother of mine
found it in a New York
subway several years ago. Thinking it may

(over)

still be of value, I am writing to you to find out whether you still would care to have
it sent to you.

If interested please
send postage to cover
mailing.

Sincerely Yours
Morris Schneid

Dear Sir:

Your communication to O. P. Eckland of Spokane, Washington, has been turned over to us as one of our men left in the subway the two books of impressions of tokens.

One of our men called at your house the other night but was unable to get in. Will you kindly send the two books to us at the above address? Please send them to us parcel post insured. We are herewith enclosing 20¢ in stamps which should more than cover.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Mr. Schneid:

I beg to thank you very much for sending the books of rubbings that were lost in the subway several years ago. These were received the other day.

Very truly yours,

Curator
